1. Aims

This policy aims to ensure that:

- The Trust's funds are used only in accordance with the law, its articles of association, its funding agreement and the latest Academy Trust Handbook
- The trust and those associated with it operate in a way that commands broad public support
- The trust has due regard to propriety and regularity, and ensures value for money, in the use of public funds
- Directors fulfil their fiduciary duties and wider responsibilities as charitable trustees and company directors
- Members, Directors and staff are aware of what constitutes acceptable gifts and hospitality, and the process that must be followed if they are presented with any of the same

2. Legislation and guidance

This policy is based on the Academy Trust Handbook, which states that academy trusts should have a policy and register on the acceptance of gifts, hospitality, awards, prizes or any other benefit, which might compromise their personal judgement or integrity. This should include Members, Directors, staff and/or any other representative of the trust. The handbook states that the trust should ensure that all staff are aware of this policy.

This policy also complies with our funding agreement and articles of association.

3. Definitions

Gifts are any items, cash, awards, prizes, goods or services, offered without expectation of payment or benefit. Gifts also include goods or services offered at a discounted rate or on terms not available to the general public.

Hospitality is defined as food, drink, accommodation or entertainment (such as cultural or sporting events) provided free of charge, heavily discounted or on terms not generally available to the general public.

4. Roles and responsibilities

4.1 Members, trustees and staff

Members, Directors and staff:

- Must not give or accept gifts or hospitality to or from a third party where it might be perceived that their personal integrity has the potential to be compromised, or that the trust might be placed under any obligation as a result of acceptance
- Must not use their official position to further their private interests or the interests of others
- Must not solicit gifts or hospitality
- Must record any gifts or hospitality offered to them or the trust with a value of over £25 on the gifts and hospitality register (see appendix 1) within 7 working days, even if declined
- Must consult the Headteacher or Chief Executive Headteacher before accepting or offering any gifts or hospitality with a value of £25.

4.2 Directors

Directors will ensure that the trust's funds are used in a way that commands broad public support, pays due regard to propriety and regularity, and provides value for money.

4.3 Chief Executive Headteacher

The Chief Executive Headteacher is responsible for ensuring that staff are aware of and understand this policy, and that it is being implemented consistently.

The Chief Executive Headteacher will act with the utmost integrity on all matters relating to gifts and hospitality, ensuring that they set a good example to the rest of the Trust and to those outside the organisation.

They will also ensure, alongside the Headteachers and Chief Finance Officer, that decisions on whether individuals or the trust can accept or offer gifts or hospitality with a value of over £25 are in line with this policy.

The Chief Executive Headteacher is responsible for communicating the Trust's rules and expectations about gift giving to parents.

4.4 The Chief Finance Officer

The Chief Finance Officer will ensure that:

- The trust maintains a gifts and hospitality register
- Figures for transactions relating to gifts made by the trust are disclosed in the trust's audited accounts, in accordance with the Academy Trust Handbook
- The Directors and Headteachers are provided with information on gifts and hospitality received and given, as appropriate

They will also ensure, alongside the Chief Executive Headteacher and Headteachers, that decisions on whether individuals or the trust can accept or offer gifts or hospitality with a value of over £25 are in line with this policy.

4.5 The Finance Officer

The Finance Officer is responsible for maintaining the gifts and hospitality register on a day-to-day basis.

4.6 Parents

- Gift giving is not a requirement, and parents are not expected to buy gifts for class teachers or other school staff.
- We know that there are times when parents/pupils like to give a gift as a token of gratitude. These are always much appreciated by staff.
- We ask parents to be aware that the Trust prevents teachers and other staff from accepting gifts worth over £25.

5. Acceptable gifts and hospitality

5.1 Offer of gifts and hospitality received

Members, Directors and staff can accept gifts and hospitality that have a value of £25. These do not have to be pre-approved or recorded on the gifts and hospitality register.

Generally, gifts of nominal value, such as small tokens of appreciation, may be accepted. If in any doubt, Members, Directors and staff must consult the Chief Executive Headteacher/Chief Finance Officer or Headteacher.

Similarly, hospitality such as working lunches may be accepted in order to maintain good relationships with key contacts, provided the hospitality is reasonable in the circumstances. If in doubt, guidance must be sought from the Chief Executive Headteacher or Chief Finance Officer.

Any gifts or hospitality offered with a value of over £25 must be recorded on the gifts and hospitality register within 7 working days, even if declined. Any Member, Director or member of staff who is offered such gifts or hospitality must consult the Chief Executive Headteacher or Chief Finance Officer before accepting.

If the Chief Executive Headteacher is the recipient, or intended recipient, of any offer of gifts or hospitality, they must inform the Chair of Directors and record the offer on the gifts and hospitality register.

Failure to declare any offer of gifts or hospitality on the register in line with this policy will be treated as a staff disciplinary matter.

5.2 Offer of gifts and hospitality given

- The Trust budget can be used to provide a working lunch for visitors and staff who are working on a particular project/meeting. This must not be extravagant; a maximum value of £6 per head should be used as a guideline.
- The Trust budget is not used to give gifts to staff
- Alcohol must not be purchased out of the Trust's budget.

The Chief Executive Headteacher or Chief Finance Officer must be consulted about any proposal to provide gifts or hospitality with a value of over £25.

6. Unacceptable gifts and hospitality

The following must never be offered or accepted:

- Monetary gifts
- Gifts or hospitality offered to family members, partners or close friends of Members, Directors or staff
- Gifts or hospitality from a potential supplier or tenderer in the immediate period before tenders are invited or during the tendering process

- Lavish or extravagant gifts or hospitality, even if they relate to activities the recipient undertakes in their own time
- This list is not intended to be exhaustive.

7. Declining gifts and hospitality

Any Members, Directors or staff member who is offered any of the unacceptable gifts or hospitality outlined in section 6 above should politely decline the offer.

If they feel it would not be appropriate for them to decline, they should refer the matter to the Chief Executive Headteacher or Chief Finance Officer. The Chief Executive Headteacher or Chief Finance Officer may decline the offer, or donate the gift or hospitality to a worthy cause, and must also record the offer on the gifts and hospitality register.

Disciplinary action will be taken against anyone who fails to decline gifts or hospitality the trust has deemed unacceptable. Failure to declare any gifts or hospitality offered on the gifts and hospitality register, in line with this policy, will be dealt with as a staff disciplinary matter.

8. Monitoring arrangements

The gifts and hospitality register is monitored regularly by the Chief Executive Headteacher.
